

4th International Conference MSPN 2024: Shaping the Future of Materials Science

Welcome to the 4th International Conference on Materials Science and Nanotechnology (MSPN 2024)

The 4th International Conference on Materials Science and Nanotechnology (MSPN 2024) is a prestigious event that will bring together renowned researchers, industry leaders, and policymakers from around the globe in the vibrant city of Paris, France, from June 18th to 20th, 2024.

MSPN 2024 is dedicated to fostering collaboration, sharing groundbreaking research, and shaping the future of materials science and nanotechnology. With its focus on cutting-edge advancements in materials science, nanotechnology, and their applications across various industries, the conference will provide an unparalleled platform for attendees to connect, innovate, and influence the direction of these dynamic fields.

Conference Themes

MSPN 2024 will cover a comprehensive range of themes, encompassing the latest advances in materials science and nanotechnology. These themes include, but are not limited to:

- Advanced Materials and Processing
- Nanomaterials and Nanotechnology
- Energy and Environmental Materials
- Biomaterials and Biomedical Applications
- Computational Materials Science
- Materials for Electronics and Optoelectronics
- Materials for Aerospace and Defense
- Materials for Transportation and Infrastructure
- Policy and Societal Implications of Materials Science and Nanotechnology

Call for Papers

Researchers and industry professionals are invited to submit original and unpublished research papers that align with the conference themes. Submissions should highlight significant and novel findings, innovative methodologies, or thought-provoking perspectives in materials science and nanotechnology.

Accepted papers will be presented in oral or poster sessions during the conference. Deadline for paper submission: [insert deadline date].
