

Actually, the Comma Goes Here: The Essential Guide to Punctuation

In this witty and illuminating guide to the often confusing world of punctuation, bestselling author Lynne Truss gives us a crash course in the rules that govern the written word. With her trademark wit and clarity, Truss explains the difference between a comma and a semicolon, a dash and a hyphen, and a colon and a semicolon. She also tackles the finer points of punctuation, such as the use of commas in compound sentences and the placement of apostrophes in possessive nouns.
