The Story

Rita is a working-class hairdresser who is bored with her life and wants more. She decides to enroll in a university course in English literature, and her tutor is Frank, a cynical and disillusioned professor. At first, Frank is reluctant to teach Rita, but he eventually comes to see her potential. Rita is a quick learner and has a natural talent for language. She quickly absorbs the material and begins to excel in her studies.

As Rita's education progresses, she begins to change. She becomes more confident and articulate, and she starts to see the world in a new way. She also begins to question her previous assumptions about life and society. Frank, too, is changed by Rita. He begins to see the world through her eyes, and he starts to question his own cynicism.

The play ends with Rita graduating from university with honors. She has achieved her dream of getting an education, and she is now ready to face the world on her own terms.

The Characters

Rita is a complex and sympathetic character. She is a working-class woman who is trying to improve her life. She is intelligent and ambitious, but she is also insecure and vulnerable. Rita is a character that everyone can relate to, regardless of their background.

Frank is a cynical and disillusioned professor. He has given up on life and has no faith in the future. However, Rita's enthusiasm and determination begin to change him. Frank starts to see the world through her eyes, and he begins to question his own cynicism.

The Themes
