Electra Delphic Women is a historical novel that brings to life the forgotten stories of these remarkable women. Through the eyes of Electra, a young priestess, we witness the challenges and triumphs of women in ancient Greece. We follow Electra as she navigates the treacherous political landscape of Delphi, uncovers the secrets of the oracle, and confronts the prejudices of her time.

Along the way, Electra encounters a cast of unforgettable characters. There's Phaedra, a wise and compassionate priestess; Cassandra, a visionary cursed with the gift of prophecy; and Clytemnestra, a powerful queen who challenges the traditional roles of women.

Through these characters, Electra Delphic Women explores the complex and often contradictory nature of female empowerment in ancient Greece. It is a story of women who defied expectations, challenged authority, and fought for their voices to be heard.
