The Ultimate Guide to This Unique and Harmonious Style

Barbershop music is a unique and beautiful style of singing that has been around for centuries. It is characterized by its close harmonies, rich overtones, and lively rhythms. If you're a singer who is interested in learning how to sing barbershop, then this is the perfect guide for you.

What is Barbershop Music?

Barbershop music is a form of a cappella singing that is characterized by its four-part harmony. The four voice parts are:

- Lead
- Tenor
- Bari

- Bass

The lead sings the melody, the tenor sings the harmony above the lead, the bari sings the harmony below the tenor, and the bass sings the lowest harmony.

Barbershop music is often performed by quartets, but it can also be sung by larger groups. The music is typically upbeat and fun, and it's often used to entertain audiences at parties, concerts, and other events.
