Meet Stephen Araban: The Listener

At the center of The Listener lies Stephen Araban, a young man burdened with a rare and inexplicable ability—he can hear the thoughts of others. As Stephen embarks on a perilous journey across war-torn Europe, his unique gift becomes both a blessing and a curse.

Tormented by the cacophony of voices that fill his mind, Stephen seeks refuge in monasteries and among wise mentors. Along the way, he encounters a cast of unforgettable characters, each with their own secrets and hidden agendas.

A Quest for Truth and Identity

As Stephen navigates the complex labyrinth of human nature, he grapples with profound questions about his own purpose and the nature of reality. Is his ability a divine gift or a burden? Does truth truly exist, or is it merely a fleeting illusion?

Through his travels and encounters, Stephen uncovers long-buried truths about his family, his faith, and the interconnectedness of all life. But with each revelation comes new challenges and the realization that the path to enlightenment is fraught with obstacles.
