Lennon's most personal and introspective songs, such as "Mother" and "God."

Lennon continued to release successful solo albums throughout the 1970s, including Imagine (1971), Mind Games (1973), and Double Fantasy (1980). He also became involved in political activism, and he and his wife, Yoko Ono, were outspoken critics of the Vietnam War.

Death

John Lennon was assassinated on December 8, 1980, by Mark David Chapman, a deranged fan. Lennon was shot four times in the back as he entered the Dakota Apartments in New York City. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Roosevelt Hospital.
