Nestled amidst the tranquility of suburban life, the house on Boundary Street holds a sinister past that threatens to unravel the lives of its new occupants, the Hamilton family.

Sarah Hamilton, a young mother struggling to overcome a traumatic event, finds solace in the charm of this century-old Victorian home. Little does she know that the house harbors a darkness that lingers in every creak and shadow.

As Sarah begins to piece together the home's ominous history, she uncovers a tragic tale of love, loss, and betrayal. The walls whisper secrets of a troubled family torn apart by tragedy.

Soon, Sarah's own family becomes entangled in the house's malevolent grip. Her young daughter, Lily, begins to exhibit strange and unsettling behavior. Her husband, David, grows distant and preoccupied.

With each passing day, the boundaries between reality and illusion blur, as Sarah grapples with the truth about the house's haunting past and the terrifying consequences it holds for her loved ones.

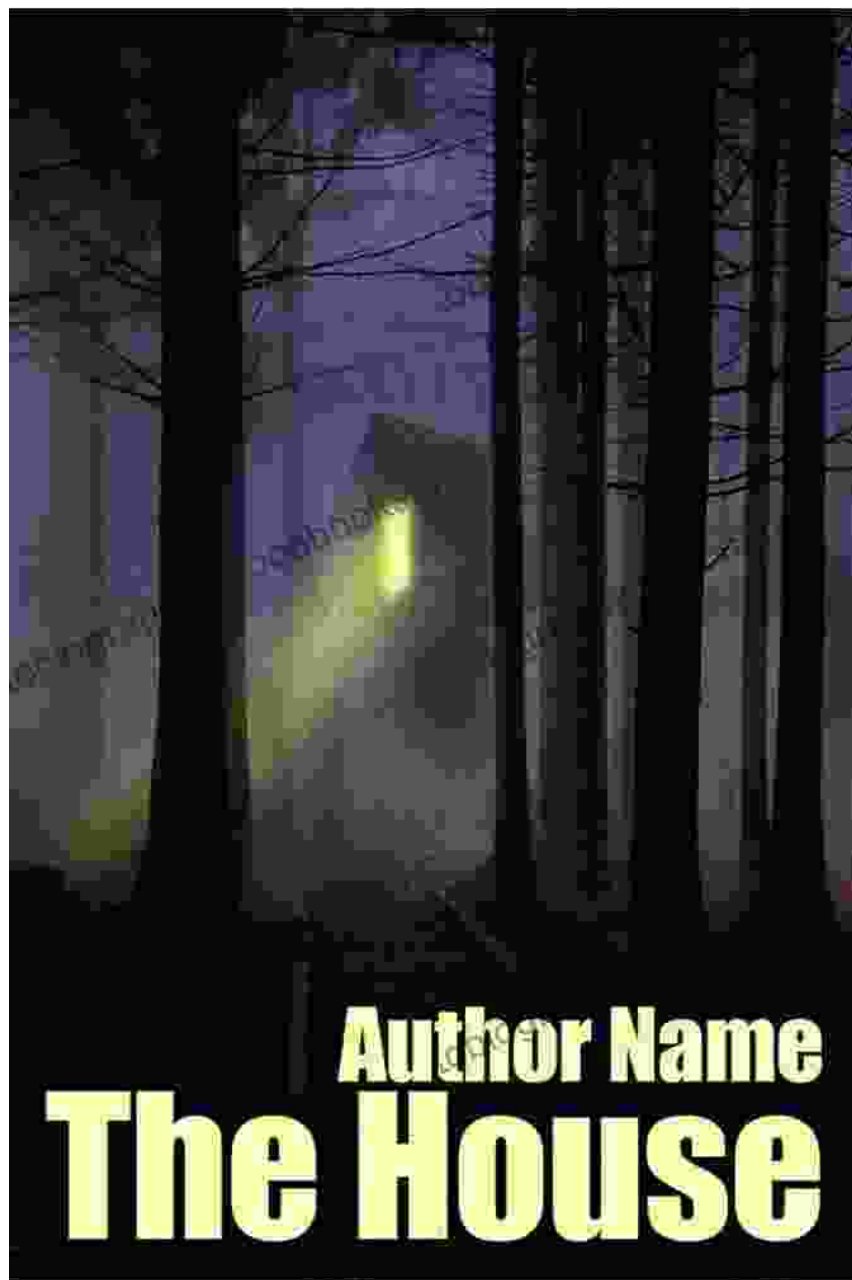

Renowned author Emily Carter weaves a spellbinding tapestry of suspense, delving into the depths of family trauma and the fragility of the human mind. Her vivid prose and complex characters will keep you riveted from beginning to end.
