The Descent into Madness

As the Hulk's power grows, so does his descent into madness. Ewing masterfully captures the inner turmoil of the character, as he grapples with the monstrous entity that now resides within him. The once familiar lines between hero and villain blur, leaving readers questioning the very nature of good and evil.

A Visual Feast of Horror

Accompanying Ewing's intricate plot is the stunning artwork by Joe Bennet. Bennet's panels are a symphony of shadows and macabre imagery, perfectly complementing the unsettling tone of the story. The Hulk's monstrous form is rendered in chilling detail, evoking a sense of primal fear and awe.

A Battle for the Soul

With the fate of the Marvel Universe hanging in the balance, the Hulk finds himself at a crossroads. As the destructive forces within him threaten to consume all, he must confront his true nature and make a choice that will determine the destiny of the world.
